OCEAN KEY, Long Beach

Luxury reaches new heights – a gateway between Land and Sea

DESCRIPTION

Long Beach's first twelve-story lifestyle apartment block offers breathtaking views of the Atlantic Ocean from its beachside location. This stunning new landmark sets unparalleled standards for lifestyle living – not only on the West Coast, but for Namibia as a whole.

WetterhausConcept GmbH

Individually designed units epitomize elegance and take apartment living to a whole new level, making the building not only an amazing holiday destination but also a solid long-term investment.

Soak in the sun and sand in Long Beach – an unsurpassed desert getaway on the Atlantic Coast, where luxury co-exists with a striking natural setting. Live in one of a few places in the world where the sea and the desert meet. With each unit boasting a unique desert and ocean view, the development offers twenty 3-bedroom penthouse- styled units.

WetterhausConcept GmbH

Only 2 exclusive units per floor with dedicated lift.

Down duvets and the highest quality pure cotton linen allow you to wind down in elegance and dream in pure comfort. The combination of outside entertainment areas with comfortable and luxurious interiors make for well-balanced penthouses, each finished with designer furniture and equipped with fully fitted kitchens; state of the art Plasma Screen TVs; home theatre systems and satellite television channels.

WetterhausConcept GmbH

The building hosts numerous unique services, ranging from a view deck and entertainment area on the top floor, to a hospitality section on the bottom floor. The rim pool overlooking the ocean provides a tranquil spot to enjoy a drink from the cocktail bar next to the pool.

Attention to detail is key in every corner of this architectural marvel. Décor combines local and international trends, allowing you to socialize or relax in the lap of luxury.
